INTERNATIONAL RESPECT FOR CHICKENS DAY – 5/4/09

United Poultry Concerns (UPC) www.upc-online.org proudly announces International Respect for Chickens Day May 4, 2009. May is International Respect for Chickens Month.

“They would rather die for their chicks than seek safety in flight...” Aldrovandi – 16th century

Chickens are cheerful, intelligent birds. The mother hen tenderly cares for her chicks, and roosers protect their families and flocks. Please do an ACTION for chickens on May 4. Show the world that chickens are people, too! Ideas:

- Write a letter/op-ed to the editor
- Table at your local mall
- Have a Respect for Chickens Day celebration at your school
- Have a We-Don't-Eat-Our-Feathered-Friends Vegan Party!
- Get on a radio talk show
- Arrange a library display/video presentation
- Leaflet at a busy street corner/your local university
- Show the Movie Chicken Run !!!

“There’s no way to treat animals well when we’re killing 10,000,000,000 of them per year. If you strung out all the chickens, cows, pigs and lambs, they’d reach to and from the moon 5 times.”
Mark Bittman

WHAT DOES “HUMANE” MEAN TO YOU?

The Truth Behind the Labels by Farm Sanctuary

We live in a country where 95 percent of eggs on the market come from birds kept in cages so small they can barely move, where mother pigs are treated like piglet-breeding machines and made to live in crates barely larger than their own bodies, where chickens raised for meat are kept in crowded barns where the air is almost unbreathable, and where castrations, tail dockings, toe clippings, brandings and other mutilations are done routinely and without regard to the pain they cause. Kept out of the public eye, these cruelties and others constitute the daily experience of hundreds of millions of farm animals. >>Read More

EAT IN THE RAW MAKES MEDFORD HEADLINES

The Medford Mail Tribune published >> this article highlighting Eat in the Raw and their yummy vegan Parma products. Great! If you haven’t had Vegan Parm! by Eat in the Raw yet, you just don’t know what you’re missing. Eat in the Raw is also working on new Parma! flavors. Since Indian food is a favorite around here, they are thinking that Indian Curry Parma! may be their next flavor. They welcome your feedback on that. Please send your comments, feedback, and suggestions to info@eatintheraw.com or post them on Facebook.

Remember to keep checking their website for new stores that carry Parma! and other updates. The Crew at Eat in the Raw, Inc. thanks you for your support! And EVEN thanks Eat in the Raw for all the samples of Vegan Parm! they donated to EVEN. THANK YOU!

A VEGETARIAN LESSON PLAN FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

By Philip Becker, Science Educator & VRG Life Member
Teach... Your Children Well...

Every so often in life, an amazing and wonderful opportunity makes its way to fortunate educators like me. Although I have been a high school science teacher since 1996, I never have had the opportunity to teach a class to young people about the virtues and practice of becoming a vegan ... that is, until this year. THANKING THE MONKEY – Rethinking the Way We Treat Animals by Karen Dawn

Going Green – Book encourages people to rethink the way they treat animals.

Review from Publishers Weekly

Starred Review. Animal rights activist Dawn is familiar to readers of her memorable opinion pieces for the Washington Post as well as her daily e-newsletter DawnWatch, but her first book should gain her a wider audience. This is a cogent and thoroughly researched overview of all the major issues in animal rights, past and present. She defines animal rights more loosely than some would like, focusing on the general movement to advance the interest of animals and discourage the use of animals as objects of commerce. Her goal is to tell you everything you wanted to know about animal rights—but were afraid to get into a fight about—and to let you weigh that information against your own values, and she succeeds admirably. Often supplying hilarious but pointed illustrations and quotes from well-known animal lovers such as Bill Maher and Natalie Portman, she illuminates the use of animals as pets, entertainment, food, in scientific testing and the Green movement. This has the potential to become a big hit for a general reading audience that wants to know what the fuss about animal rights is, as well as the many college students at the forefront of animal rights activism. [Our 7-year-old daughter] Maggie is our all-natural girl. Anything to do with nature and anything that breathes and walks and moves, she wants it. And she informed us the other day that she's gonna be a vegetarian. She just woke up one morning and said, 'I'm gonna be a vegetarian,' and she has been one ever since." Faith Hill

The Eugene Veg Education Network (EVEN) is an official 501 (c) (3) non-profit based in Eugene, Oregon serving as a resource for those seeking information on a healthful, vegan lifestyle. EVEN's emphasis is one of non-violence, compassion and sustainability. Focus is on the interconnectedness of all life and how a plant-based diet benefits the earth, non-human animals, and the individual. EVEN's Mission Statement is to inform, educate & encourage its members---as well as the larger community---by providing access to pertinent information on veganism and its positive impact on the health of the planet and all its inhabitants. Peace.
