

EVEN Update 12/20/14

Hello, Everyone!

Over the last ten years, there have been many businesses and companies who offered help to EVEN, and we are grateful for them all!

The ones listed below have been steadfast, consistent and generous in their help. These companies, businesses and individuals have made it possible for EVEN's vegan education and outreach to grow the way it has over the past decade reaching more people, families and children than ever before.

We thank them by keeping them in the right-hand column of every page of our website, but we also thank them by patronizing them.

Please support those who support
EVEN! We do. :)

Big Carrots and Joyous Love
to all who have helped with EVEN's outreach!
