Hello, everyone! Just a quick note...Help!

In case you thought your life couldn't get any better, try this worthwhile idea on for size! Hosting a 16 year old vegan high school student from Germany could be educational, fun and illuminating for all involved. What a wonderful experience! Robert and I hosted a high school exchange student from Japan in the 90s, and it is still one of our fondest memories.

Hope you will inquire into this opportunity and contact Jennifer (541-357-4526) with questions or for more information.

Please help this lovely vegan student locate a vegan (or vegan-friendly) family for her next semester!

Thank you,
Lin

Host a High School Exchange Student

Practice international diplomacy one person at a time!

YOUR EXCHANGE STUDENT WILL:

- Be fluent in English
- Be highly screened and interviewed
- Attend your local high school
- Stay for a semester or full school year
- Bring their own spending money
- Have health insurance

AS THE VOLUNTEER HOST FAMILY YOU WILL:

- Provide a bed for your student (can share room with same sex/ similar age sibling)
- Provide in home meals (i.e. cereal for breakfast, lunch, and an extra plate at dinner)
- Protect and guide your new son or daughter as they discover our culture
- Treat them as a member of the family, not a guest- they will do chores too!

Be able to truly impact the world...one kid at a time!

 Host families can be empty nesters, families of all kinds, and couples with no children.

Annelies is a 16 year old girl from Germany. She lives with her mom, dad and 2 siblings. She would prefer to live in a family with host siblings. Annelies is very active and enjoys skiing, snowboarding, hiking, running and yoga. She is also apart of a tennis club and hopes to participate in school sports and clubs when she comes over to the U.S.

Annelies is vegan and is happy to cook for herself. She loves cooking and baking, especially vegan desserts.

Annelies describes her personality strengths as ambitious, open minded and friendly.
